

Cub Scout Leader Pow Wow

Treasures of Scouting

- What it is: THE Cub Scout Training event of the year! An entire year's worth of new ideas and inspiration that will enhance your Cub Scout Pack, Den and programs.
- Who should attend: Pow Wow is for ALL adults interested in the Cub Scout program. This includes, but is not necessarily limited to Tiger Cub partners, Den Leaders, Cubmasters, Committee Members, Webelos Leaders and parents. There will also be an all-day Den Chief Training for Boy Scouts at the same time and place.
- What is Den Chief Training: Den Chief Training at Pow Wow is leadership training for Boy Scouts to help them learn the necessary skills needed to be a fantastic Den Chief. A Den Chief is a Boy Scout who assists a Den Leader with den meetings, at the recommendation of his Scoutmaster. Boy Scouts must be at least 1st class rank to register to take this class.
- When is Pow Wow: Saturday, February 21, 2009 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
- Where is Pow Wow: The Church at Quail Creek- located at 801 Tascosa Rd, Amarillo, Texas.
- What classes can I take? There is an extensive variety of classes to take at Pow Wow! Look at the Course List and pick your 6 classes. Make sure you choose 6 alternate classes in case your first choice is full. The only problem may be that you want to sign up for everything! PLEASE NOTE: All classes must have a minimum of 7 participants to make. Classes are assigned on a first-come, first served basis.
- Can I bring my kids to Pow Wow? Pow Wow is intended for adult leaders and classes are intended for adults only. There will, however be babysitting available for an additional fee. Please see the reservation form for details.
- How do I register? A registration form is attached to this flyer. Mail your registration to:
Golden Spread Council, BSA , 401 Tascosa Rd., Amarillo, Texas 79124
- How much does Pow Wow cost? Registration is $15.00 per person. This takes care of supplies, a patch, lunch, your choice of six classes and a special surprise at the end of the training day! Late registration fee (received at the council office after February 6, 2009) is $25. Save yourself $10 and be an Early Bird registrant!
- Midway Display Area/Resource Alley!! Not only are there classes at Pow Wow, but there'll be a number of outside organizations sharing opportunities for den and pack activities. Visit the Midway to receive information about activities, things to do and places to visit with your Cub Scouts, along with information about 2009 summer camps! The Scout Shop will be there too!
- Class Schedules: You will select the classes you want to take and rank them according to your preferences – early registrants get “first pick”! You will be given your schedule at check-in.
- What to Wear and Bring: Wear your uniform and comfortable shoes, perhaps a light sweater. Bring a bag or day-pack to carry literature and other trophies and trinkets you pick up. At the very least, bring a notepad and pencil.
- Contest! The 2009 Pow Wow theme is Pirates and the “Treasures of Scouting”. Gather during lunch for the “Blue and Gold Banquet”. Packs are encouraged to build and bring a theme-related centerpiece for lunch tables. Get your creative juices working and submit an entry! A special prize will be awarded for the best centerpiece!!!
- Housing: For our out of town participants there are plenty of camp sites available at Camp Don Harrington. If you are interested in reserving a campsite at Camp Don, please contact the Scout Office at 806-358-6500. There is NO cost for the use of the camp!
- Refund Policy: There are no refunds available but fees are transferable to another Scouter.
- Questions? Please feel free to contact Scott Kilian, Council Program Director at 806 -358-6500 or email at scott.kilian@scouting.org

Pow Wow Sessions

TRAINING:

Class Code	Class Name	Class Description
T1	Pack Organization and Program Planning	Make sure your Pack runs smoothly from den meetings to pack meetings. Greater results with less effort come from an organized pack that plans an exciting 12-month program
T2	Cub Scouting 101	Does the entire Scouting lingo confuse you? Need some basic ideas for den meetings that have pizzazz? This class will tell you what you've always wanted to know!
T3	Cubmaster 101	This workshop is designed to give Cubmasters the skill and techniques they need to run an effective and fun program.
T4	Tiger Cubs 101	The Tiger Cub program is the first Scouting experience for most boys and parents. This class will help make it GRRRRREAT!
T5	Budget Planning and Fundraising	A critical element for an energetic, successful pack is having funds to provide a dynamic year-long program.
T6	Recruiting a Strong Pack	A vital, on-going pack requires boys and trained leaders. But how do we recruit and retain boys and adults from year to year?
T7	First Aid	If an accident does happen, be ready with basic first aid skills, the right first aid kit and authority to treat. This is not a certification course – no cards will be issued.
T8	Webelos to Scout Transition	How do we take Webelos across the “bridge” to Boy Scouts in great numbers?
T9	Working with Overactive Kids	This session will address how leaders can make program changes and find resources to use with “challenging” kids.
T10	Roundtables	What is Roundtable and why should YOU be there?
T11	The Pack Committee	How can this group of people get organized and accomplish amazing projects to better their pack? Come and learn from those that have made it work .
T12	Camping Opportunities	Learn about all the upcoming camping opportunities for your Scouts. This will include resident camps and day camps. Flyers will be available to take back to your unit!
T13	Den Leader 101	This session will teach you how to do a great Den Meeting using the Boy Scouts of America resources.
T14	YPT	Spend some time learning about Youth Protection and the requirements of the BSA.
